

Obtaining a Business License

- ⇒ Obtain the business license application form online at www.townofdavidson.com or from the Town Office.
- ⇒ Please return completed application form and payment to the Town of Davidson for the particular Business License. Mail to Town of Davidson, Box 340, Davidson, SK S0G 1A0 or drop it off at the Town Office at 206 Washington Avenue.
- ⇒ The Town of Davidson may issue a business license when the following objectives have been met:
 - The required application has been completed.
 - The required license fee has been paid.
 - The business or the premises it occupies complies with all the zoning, building, water and sewer and other bylaws of the Town.
 - If required, the necessary provincial or federal license has been produced.
- ⇒ Any license issued under the Business Bylaw must be displayed in a prominent place at the location of business for which it was issued. The license must be produced for inspection purposed, upon request of the Town Administrator or his/her delegate or the Bylaw Enforcement Officer.
- ⇒ Not sure if you need a business license? If an individual/business advertises items for sale or offer services for a fee, then you most likely need a business license. For the purpose of the Business License Bylaw, advertising includes any form of print/radio/television/social media utilized.

Things to Remember

- If a business is carried on at more than one location, a license is required for each site.
- A person must renew their license annually (including fee re-submittal) or purchase a license for each project.
- A person must notify the Town if a discontinuance or change in the business' size, nature, or location occurs. A person purchasing or taking over an existing business must notify the Town of any changes to the business contact information. The new license will expire at the end of the original license period.

Business License Guidelines

The Town of Davidson's Business Licensing Bylaw aims to regulate businesses, ensure compliance with land use and building regulations, gather land use information, and facilitate planning decisions.

With the exception of store-front businesses, no person may carry on any business in the Town of Davidson without a license.

For purposes of definitions, business indicates any of the following activities, whether or not for profit and however organized or formed:

- A commercial, merchandising or industrial activity or undertaking;
- The carrying on of a profession, trade, occupation, calling or employment;
- An activity providing goods or services;
- If you advertise items for sale or offer services for a fee, then you most likely need a business license. For the purpose of the Business License Bylaw, advertising includes any form of print/radio/social media utilized.

In accordance with the Zoning Bylaw, a Development Permit will be required prior to the issuance of a Business License for Home-Based Businesses.

For a copy of the Business Bylaw and/or the Town of Davidson's Zoning Bylaw, please visit the Town of Davidson's website at www.townofdavidson.com.
