

Davidson Coffee Pot

In 1996, the 24' coffee pot was constructed by Austin Eade of Craik and originally painted by Kelly Thorson of Holdfast. It weighs 5000 pounds and if full of coffee, would serve 150,000 – 8oz cups.

This symbol represents a hospitable community that knows how to:

- host major sporting events
- build and expand businesses
- survive on good service
- host highway guests to meals
- take pride in golf greens
- host meetings
- maintain a beautiful camp ground beside our swimming pool

West Side - Fine blend of rural hospitality, excellence in sports & a foundation of education:

- Midway Magic Dinner Theatre masks
- old railway watch
- lantern
- coffee grinder
- coffee pot
- telephone
- Home Sweet Home sign
- Prairie Tapestry History book
- hockey skates
- curling rock
- ball glove
- teacher's bell
- Afghan pattern

East Side - Community in Motion, pride in our past, energy for the present and hope for the future

Take a nostalgic tour of our community, starting at:

- Davidson's former seven elevator skyline
- past Grandpa's armchair
- past an old wagon wheel
- turn right at a roaring locomotive
- respect for the Davidson Cenotaph flanked by the Canadian flag
- tri-cycler
- Canadian goose
- Saskatchewan flag
- airplane flying over a combine in a fall field of wheat
- tractor trailer semi-unit
